Browsing through our 2004-2005 catalog is like taking a stroll with us down picturesque French Quarter streets. Fern lined alley ways lead to unexpected courtyards, jazz music hangs in the air like the humidity in August. The sweet smell of magnolias mixes with the aroma of coffee and chicory...ahhh, New Orleans! There is no place like it on earth!

Café Du Monde has been a part of the rich New Orleans tradition serving locals and tourists since 1862. Our unique coffee is blended with chicory and served "café au lait" — half coffee and half milk. Any New Orleanian can tell you that chicory, the roasted root of the endive plant, makes coffee as good as it gets!

In the land of people who live to eat, not eat to live, beignets are considered serious business. The square, holeless, puffy French doughnuts are covered in powdered sugar and very hard to resist. A craving can occur at any time, which is why Café Du Monde is open 24 hours a day, 364 days a year. Be sure to check our website for beignet making tips!
